

MOHL-HOEY

Edward T. Mohl and Maria (Hoey) Mohl lived in Baychester at 2302 Boller Avenue in the 1930s.¹

Edward Mohl was born in June 1887 in either England or New York, depending on the source. His parents have not been identified. Maria Hoey was born in October 1889 in New Jersey. Her parents have not been confirmed.

They married on October 4, 1908 in Hoboken, New Jersey at Our Lady of Grace Church,² and were living in Hoboken, NJ in 1910 where their first child, Travis/Travers, was born. Edward was working as a bank clerk at the time. In 1920 they were still living in Hoboken, NJ, where their second child, Edgar, was born.³

By 1930 Edward Mohl was working as a Printer for a printing company and had moved to the Bronx, New York. He purchased a house in Baychester at 2302 Boller Avenue, where Edward, his wife Maria, and the younger son Edgar lived for several years. The older son Travers Mohl was not living there and has not been found since; perhaps he died in childhood.¹

Edward Mohl died in July 1939 and was buried in Jersey City, NJ at Holy Name Cemetery.⁴ After his death it is not known where the family lived, but probably they moved back to New Jersey where Maria was from and where Edward was buried. Maria (Hoey) Mohl died in December 1960 and was buried alongside her husband at Holy Name Cemetery in Jersey City.⁵

No additional information was found on the younger son Edgar Mohl.
