

SAGGESE-SANFELICE

Luigi (Louis) Saggese and his wife Anna Sanfelice lived in Baychester, Bronx, New York at 2211 DeReimer Avenue.

Louis Saggese was born on February 7, 1911 in Manhattan, New York, son of Italian parents Giuseppe Saggese and Lena Mirra. He was the fifth of seven children.

Louis Saggese and Anna Sanfelice married on Sept. 24, 1939 in the Bronx, New York. He was 28 years old; she was 26 years old. Upon marriage, Louis moved into the multi-family house Anna was raised in, and lived with Anna's parents and other Sanfelice family members.

Anna Sanfelice was born May 7, 1913 at home in the Bronx, New York, daughter of Italian immigrants Gabriele Sanfelice and Vittoria Santonastaso (see "Sanfelice-Santonastaso" biography.) She was the first of four children.

Louis Saggese and Anna Sanfelice raised two children while living in Baychester: Lois Saggese and Victoria Saggese. Louis supported his family as New York City Bus Driver.

Louis Saggese died at home at age 53 on December 27, 1964. He was buried in Gate of Heaven Cemetery in Westchester, New York. His wife Anna continued to reside at 2211 DeReimer Avenue for a few more years, eventually moving in with her daughter Lois, now married, in Stamford, Connecticut. Anna Saggese died at age 86 on December 9, 1999 in Stamford, Connecticut and is buried in Gate of Heaven Cemetery with her husband.

